

Illinois promotes, protects, and supports Breastfeeding

Federal and Illinois law protects a mother and her child's right to breastfeed

Breastfeeding in public is protected by law

For more information, please visit www.illinoisbreastfeeding.org

Illinois Breastfeeding Laws

Public Act 100-0029 Lactation Accommodations for Students (Effective 1/2018)

Illinois public schools are required to provide accommodations for a lactating student to breastfeed her baby. Breastfeeding students may not incur an academic penalty as a result of their use of the reasonable accommodations and must be provided the opportunity to make up any work missed due to such use.

Public Act 094-0391 Exempts Nursing Mothers from Jury Service (Effective 2006)

The Jury Act was amended to include: “any mother nursing her child shall, upon request, be excused from jury service.”

Public Act 093-0942 “The Right to Breastfeed” Act (Effective 2004)

The “Right to Breastfeed” Act protects a mother’s right to breastfeed her baby in public. “A mother may breastfeed in any location, public or private, where the mother is otherwise authorized to be.... A woman who has been denied the right to breastfeed by the owner or manager of a public or private location...may bring a court action and...may be awarded reasonable expenses of litigation.”

Public Act 092-0068 Nursing Mothers in the Workplace Act (Effective 2001)

An employer shall provide reasonable unpaid break time each day to an employee who needs to express breast milk for her infant child. An employer shall make reasonable efforts to provide a room or other location, in close proximity to the work area, other than a toilet stall, where an employee can express her milk in privacy.

Breastfeeding is Not Indecency (Effective 1995)

Breastfeeding of infants is not an act of public indecency.